Criterion 4 - Infrastructure and Learning Resources

4.1 Physical Facilities:

4.1.1. (Q_iM):The Institution has adequate infrastructure and physical facilities for teaching – learning, viz., classrooms, laboratories, computing equipment, etc.

Classrooms:

The campus has 03 academic blocks with 41 classrooms designed as per the safety guidelines and specified guidelines by the statutory authorities. The classrooms are spacious with ample ventilation, lighting and which could create a better atmosphere of learning. Most of the classrooms are enabled with ICT facilities and upgraded as smart classrooms with interactive boards for students to have better virtual learning.

Laboratories:

The institution creates a focal point for theory and practical by providing equal weightage, to support the Outcome Based Curriculum (OBC) ambience with advanced laboratories in multiple discipline including Botany, Zoology, Chemistry, Microbiology, Physics, Electronics, Computer Science, Computer applications and JKC. The institution has 20 well-equipped laboratories stocked with necessary resources to carry out experiments and research along with safety devices to support all programmes.

Computing Equipment:

Five fully air-conditioned computer laboratories located in Computer Science, Computer application and JKC departments housing 637 computers meet the computing requirements of core, allied and elective courses of various departments, among that 516 Computers purely meant for Student use. Every year College is upgraded with a few new systems to promote academic and non-academic activities and these machines are useful to promote computer literacy among students of non-computer science disciplines.

Seminar Hall:

The institution has one air conditioned ICT facilitated seminar hall, known as E-Seminar hall with a capacity to hold an assembly of about 150 members, One Silver Jubilee seminar hall with a capacity to hold an assembly about 200 members and one ICT facilitated seminar hall known as Chemistry Seminar hall with a capacity to hold an assembly of about 70 members. Quiz programs, departmental in house sessions, club meetings and training programs are held at those seminar halls.
